RULES FOR PUBLIC OFFICERS CHOSEN PLUNGE IN PARK TO LEAD CLUB'S ARE OUTLINED MUSIC SECTION

Roy Biddlecom Chosen As Manager of Municipal Swimming Pool

Hail, Knight of the Bath!
Roy Biddlecom of 1008 Virginia Place has been appointed by the city administration as manager of the municipal bathhouse.

This is now in course of construction in the city park on Patterson avenue. The main open air plunge is scheduled to get its first taste of water about the first of July. This is 40 feet long and 9 feet "thick" in its deepest part. A smaller pool for tiny tots has a diameter of about 20 feet and a depth of about a foot and a half.

Twenty dozen bathing suits of assorted sizes are now stored in the city hall in charge of City Purchasing Agent Joseph H. Webster. They are black with red stripes, each monogrammed with a large "G." A hundred dozen bathing caps are on hand, also, but these will be sold.

Plans for Efficiency

Mr. Biddlecom regards his appointment as an opportunity to be of real service to the community and is making arrangements to manage the bathhouse efficiently. His salary does not start until the middle of next month, but he expects to give considerable of his time to the city before this time.

An hour in the water and half an hour to dress is considered sufficient under the regulations of the municipal bathhouses of Los Angeles, which Mr. Biddlecom expects to follow. These provide one bathing period in the morning from 9:20 until 11 o'clock; and two in the afternoon between 1:30 and 5 o'clock. Later the plunge may be kept open between 6 and 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Sunday hours will be between 1:30 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Schedule of Charges

Expenses will depend upon the age of the bather. Everyone will be required to pay 5 cents for a towel. Children under 11 years of age will pay 5 cents in addition for a suit, making the total charge to them 10 cents. Children between the ages of 1 and 11 will be charged 5 cents for service, but a bath will cost them 15 cents. Persons over 15 years of age will be charged 10 cents for service or a total of 20 cents.

Parents may send their children to the bathhouse without fear, according to Mr. Biddlecom. An eagle-eyed life guard will be on duty continuously during the bathing hours with instructions not to engage in conversation or do anything except watch the pool. Mr. Biddlecom also is quite a swimmer.

A telephone is to be installed at the bathhouse so that mothers may phone to see if their children are there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clebert Build Country Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clebert and son Robert of 591 South Glendale avenue, who are members of Sunset Canyon Country club at Burbank, spent Sunday in the canyon, where they are building one of the most commodious and attractive cabins in the vicinity.

It is the only concrete building that has been erected thus far, and will have four comfortable rooms, and be fitted with shower bath. Water is already on the property, as well as electricity. The club swimming pool is now completed and the golf links are expected to be opened in two or three weeks. The Cleberts' residence is to be finished and furnished in a manner that will make it a comfortable home in winter as well as summer.

Former Classmates In Informal Reunion

Dr. Elmer Eggleston, one of the leading physicians of the medical staff of the Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich., who was a delegate to the Rotary convention held recently in southern California, also enjoyed the pleasure of meeting several physicians who were members of the class in which he graduated in Chicago in 1900. Among them were Dr. Julia White, of 228 East Maple avenue; Dr. Lydia E. Parmelee, of the Glendale Sanitarium; Dr. Florence Keller and Dr. Lilian Mazon, of the White Memorial hospital in Los Angeles.

Cars of A. J. May And C. White Crash

An automobile collision last night about 6 o'clock was explained by Arthur J. May of 548 Oak street, as follows:
"I was going east on Wilson avenue about to cross Glendale avenue. A car was coming south on Glendale avenue. I saw it and stopped. He lost control of his car and collided with me."
The driver of the other car was Charles White of 2633 Glendale boulevard. Mr. White's version of the accident was not obtained.

Local Lodge of Elks Enjoys Social Time

To all outward appearances it was a regular meeting of Glendale Elks' lodge, No. 1283, at their clubhouse last night.

True, there were a few more cars parked around the place than usual and somebody whispered that the program was going to be worth while.

So it was. After the business of the evening had been dispensed with, the members gathered 'round to hear the latest in jazz.

"Bill" Bode and his saxophone moaned for several minutes and then a troupe of Los Angeles entertainers were turned loose. They could sing, they could dance, they could put over a whole show and leave their audience applauding for more. L. H. Oliver and the program committee were highly commended for their selection of talent.

After all of that a buffet lunch was served which proved very satisfying for which John Roman and the house committee get the honors.

Those who were there declare it was one of the best times among many and the visitors included delegations from Pasadena, Long Beach, Huntington Park, Santa Monica and Los Angeles.

One week from tonight the officers of No. 1283 will put on the work for the Pasadena lodge. The newly-organized Elks' band will accompany them and it is expected they will make quite a showing.

W. L. Andrews Home Is Scene of Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Andrews, on Providence avenue, was the scene of a happy affair recently when thirty-two guests were entertained at a dinner and musicale which was immensely enjoyed by all present.

The dining room was decorated with sweet peas and smilax, and the living room with roses. Unique table schemes were carried out, with beautiful effect.

The program was opened by Mrs. Andrews with a reading of "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," which was very dramatically given. Dr. Philip Zeiss followed with two songs, "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly."

Violin solos were rendered by Eugene Weaver, his two sons, Fred and Irwin, and by Miss Genevieve Roberts. They were accompanied on the piano by Miss Edna Crane.

Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," was beautifully sung by Mr. Kaufman, who responded to the enthusiastic applause with an encore.

Mrs. Charles Lovejoy entertained with a rendition of two quaint little schemes, "The Pink Rose," and "The Flowers."

As the last number on the program, Mrs. Andrews sang "Mother Machree" in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Fulton, who only two days before had celebrated their fifty-first wedding anniversary.

Transportation Bill Not to Be Changed

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The transportation (Esch-Cummings) act of 1920, which returned the railroads to their owners after federal control and now provides for government regulation, will not be changed immediately.

The house interstate commerce committee voted today to postpone until December further hearings on the bill to repeal the ratemaking sections of the act and to limit the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission over intrastate rates.

REALTY BOARD MEETING

The Glendale Realty Board will meet at noon tomorrow instead of at night as previously planned, according to an announcement this morning by Secretary E. P. Hayward. He stated that the Elks' flag day exercises, which are scheduled for tomorrow night, had caused the change of plans. The multiple listing system will be the principal topic of discussion by the "real estate."

SCOUT EXECUTIVE BUILDING PERMITS BENNER INSPECTS FOR JUNE NOW CAMP SITE AT $133,465

Arrangements Being Made to Have Great Outing on Catalina Island

In company with Tallman H. Trask, scout executive of the Pasadena district, Boy Scout Council, Scout Executive Harold F. Benner of the Verdugo Hills district council returned to Glendale last night from a four-day inventory trip to the Catalina Island boy scout camp.

They left early Friday morning, according to Mr. Benner, and had a smooth trip both ways. As the boy scout camp is located twenty-three miles from Avalon on the western end of the island, it was necessary to put up at the island villas on Friday evening so as to take the "Betty O" early Saturday morning for the isthmus.

On the way up to the Isthmus the "Betty O" came in close to White's Landing and the executives waved to the Y. M. C. A. men who were erecting their camp prior to the first group that goes over June 19.

After having dinner at the Isthmus, the two executives hiked to Howland's Landing, the site for the boy scout camp which is three miles further on. Upon arriving at the camp they began immediately to take inventory and found that the store house had been broken into by Austrian fishermen and over half of the camp equipment stolen.

Camp Opens July 20

Mr. Trask has already taken steps to replace the lost equipment which will be taken to the camp far in advance of the opening day, July 20.

The swimming was great according to Executive Benner, who claims that Trask and he spent over two hours "padding around." Both men have passed the American Red Cross life saving test and are expert swimmers. The trip back was uneventful with the exception of a Rotary meeting that was held on "Avalon," to which the executives were invited to attend.

"We had a fine trip, with the exception that everybody seemed inclined to smack us on the back and under the circumstances we much preferred to be let alone," said Executive Benner.

Miss Rebecca Brant Is Guest of Honor

Mrs. Frank M. Arnold and Mrs. D. W. Brant gave a delightful party Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Brant's daughter, Miss Rebecca Brant. Various games were played, and later refreshments of cake, ice-cream and candy were served.

Miss Brant had as her guests the Misses Betty Glade, Helen White, Anita Arnold, Virginia Burris, Virginia Horner, Beatrice Case, Esther Wintersville, Portia Chambers, Janice Brown, Katherine Kitterman, Josephine MacLaren, Evelyn Meeker and Alice Luc.

An inquest will be held today.

Mrs. J. Herbert Smith Is Honored by Club

Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, who leaves next Sunday evening for a trip to Europe, was the honored guest at the Monday Bridge Club meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. A. W. Beach, 1121 North Maryland avenue.

It was one of the most unusual and elaborate affairs of its kind ever staged in Glendale, it is said, and Mrs. Beach proved herself to be both a happy and ingenious hostess.

The centerpiece for the luncheon table was the Aquitania (the steamer on which the Smiths will sail) in miniature, while every place card was a smaller boat named for the members of the club. Each ship was decorated with an American flag because of the fact that the Aquitania sails the Fourth of July.

After the luncheon Mrs. Beach came in dressed as a tramp, with the customary cane and red handkerchief tied thereto. When she unlocked the budget, there were a shower of prettily embroidered kerchiefs, each bearing an original verse covering almost every occasion for their use.

The afternoon was enjoyed at the bridge tables and the guest of honor was presented with the first prize as well as consolation. Those enjoying the event were Mesdames J. Herbert Smith, Delos Herbert Smith, Willis M. Kimball, Sallie Campbell Barden, Charles B. Guthrie, Roy Hinchcliffe, Robert H. Kimball, Elizabeth Pulliam, John Allan Legge, W. L. Truit, Harry Whaley and A. W. Beach, the hostess.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., June 13.—When Deputy Sheriff H. L. Bailey tried to examine Bill Blankenship's saddle bags on suspicion they might contain contraband liquor, the mule pawed, kicked and brayed and then bolted down the road. Bailey drew his revolver and shot at the mule. Though hit by one of the shots, the mule kept going at top speed, ran four miles and then fell dead near the Kentucky border. ORGANIZED LABOR ATTACKS HARDING'S PROJECT
CINCINNATI, June 13.—Ship subsidy legislation pending in congress and backed by President Harding and his administration became the object of vigorous attack by organized labor at today's session of the American Federation of Labor's annual convention. Condemned by resolution, "as inimical to public interest and destructive to the nation's aspirations as a sea power," delegates launched into lengthy debate on the merits and demerits of the measure. The resolution first to come before the convention was introduced by James Duncan, president of the Granite Cutters' International. It asked organized labor to put its stamp of disapproval on the bill enactment of which, the resolution charged, would plunge shipping interests into the vortex of politics.

SENATOR CALLS PLAN 'BREAD PILL FOR SOLDIERS'

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Following a demand by Senator Kendrick, democrat, Wyoming, in the senate today that congress should provide for the soldier bonus without further delay, Senator Ladd of North Dakota, denounced the M'Cumber insurance certificate plan as a "bread pill for the soldiers." "When they have asked for meat and have been given a stone," said Ladd, "I can see where the plan can react to the general good of the bankers of the country." As an amendment to the M'Cumber bill, Ladd proposed a straight out cash bonus as a substitute for the house saving certificate plan by the issuance of treasury notes to the amount of $2,500,000,000, or as much thereof as may be necessary to pay the soldiers their compensation in cash. The notes would be retired over a period of twenty-five years.

CINCINNATI, June 13.—Pleas for internationalism in the organized labor movement as the best means for averting possible future wars and accomplishing unity and advancement in trade unionism were made to the American Federation of Labor convention here this afternoon by British and Dominion of Canada fraternal delegates. Citing illustrations of the political powers of organized labor in Great Britain, E. L. Poulton and Herbert H. Smith of the British trade union congress, urged American labor to solidarity in the wielding of the ballot. Ernest Robinson, of the trades and labor congress of the Dominion of Canada, pleaded the necessity of banding its political strength with the voting power of American women. The convention recessed shortly before 1 p. m., until tomorrow, which had been set aside as "child labor day." United States Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, and Mrs. Florence Kelly, of Pennsylvania, will address the convention.

CITY'S BUDGET IS DISCUSSED BY COUNCILMEN

Municipal Revenues to Be Near $290,000 for Fiscal Year, Is Estimate

A "pleasant time was had" last night by the city council discussing the budget for the next fiscal year.

Determination to operate the municipal government on a businesslike basis as efficiently as possible guided the actions of the city solons. They decided unanimously at a recent meeting that the budget must not exceed the estimated total revenue regardless of the temptation to leave a deficit for the next budget.

The city's revenue for the year ending July 1, 1923, will be in the neighborhood of $290,000, according to City Auditor H. A. Harrison. Budgets submitted by heads of departments for approval call for an expenditure of approximately $340,000 which is $50,000 in excess of this sum. These have now been pared down so that the two estimates are almost equal and arrangements are to be made for an equal emergency fund of about $10,000.

For Better Streets
The largest share of the budget for the next fiscal year will be claimed by the street department, according to City Manager W. H. Reeves.

"The council is a unit in demanding better streets," he asserted this morning. "That is one item of expense that they will not trim. They are also committed to a policy of extension as far as possible in the police and fire departments. They have decided that there will be no extensive salary increases."

The budget is expected to be completed at the next session of the city council, Thursday night.

A large part of last night's session was held "in the hole"—or, rather, "in the committee of the whole" which is political language for "secret session."

All members of the city council were present including Mayor Spencer Robinson, Dwight W. Stephenson, C. E. Kimlin, S. A. Davis and A. H. Lapham. Other city officials were on hand in an advisory capacity, among them were City Manager W. H. Reeves; City Clerk A. J. Van Wie; City Auditor H. A. Harrison; City Engineer C. L. Hill; Col. J. D. Fraser, chief of police; Fire Chief A. H. Lankford and Municipal Bus Expert C. D. Gulick.

Jack Finch Given Surprise on Birthday

Mrs. J. B. Finch of 437 South Pacific avenue entertained a party of young people very happily last Saturday evening, in compliment to her son, Jack Finch, a freshman at the high school. The affair was arranged as a surprise to the guest of honor who was celebrating his sixteenth birthday anniversary.

He accompanied a friend to Griffith park and was detained until 6 o'clock, when he was completely surprised by the arrival at the park of the merry crowd and his mother, who presided at a delicious picnic supper, the menu also including ice-cream and a beautiful birthday cake. At an early hour they returned to the Finch home and the remainder of the evening was devoted to informal dancing, with music furnished by young musicians who were among the guests.

Those present were Violet Benner, Geraldine Meagher, Hazel Owens, Lucile Whitson, Beulah Whitney, Loreta Max, Velma Pierce, Mary Lewis, Ethlyn Housh, Nellie Lore; Richardson Jones, Arthur Cressy, Craig and Louis Leitch, Earl Mayo, Norman Nelson, Henry Grace, Jack Finch and Mrs. Finch. Jack was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Katherine Sargent's Engagement Is Told

Miss Katherine Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sargent of 717 N. Louise street, entertained on Monday afternoon with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Susie Case of Claremont.

Miss Case's marriage to Mr. Philip Leighton is an event of next month. The honor guest and the hostess were classmates at Pomona College and the guest list included some of their college friends.

During the serving of refreshments, little cards announced the engagement of Miss Sargent and Shirley Matthews of Powers, Oregon. Assisting the hostess were her mother and sister, Miss Eleanor Sargent, and Miss Ruth Bartlett of La Verde.

Postpone Picnic of Section to June 22

The Arts and Crafts section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will not hold the picnic planned for Tuesday of this week, according to Mrs. R. W. Meeker, curator, who states the event will be held on June 22 instead. Too many conflicting events, including intermediate school graduation exercises, caused the postponement.

HUGE CONCESSIONS
TO BE OFFERED
BY RUSSIANS

Delegates to Conference at The Hague Prepared to Submit Plans

THE HAGUE, June 13.—The Russian government representatives in the economic conference which opens here Thursday, will be prepared to offer concessions for commercial exploitations worth approximately a billion dollars, provided conditions are satisfactory to the Moscow government, it was learned today from sources believed to be reliable.

The concessions deal with minerals, railway construction, agricultural development and timber.

The vanguard of the economic experts who will participate in the conference on Russian reconstruction has arrived here.

This will be more of a business and less of a political meeting than the one at Genoa. This explains why Premier Lloyd George, George Tchitcherine, the Russian commissar for foreign affairs, and other statesmen who were at Genoa, decided to come to The Hague.

Russians Not Surprised
The Russian delegates were not surprised by the obstructionist attitude adopted by France. They had been warned at Genoa what to expect. They feel that the conciliatory policy of Great Britain will offset to some extent the hostility of France, although they admit that the anti-Russian attitude of France, Belgium and the United States will make a solution of the Russian problem most difficult.

The conference program is for the representatives of the powers to appoint a mixed commission to take testimony from a committee of Russian experts, probably headed by Maxim Litvinoff. It is not yet certain whether the two commissions will visit Russia.

After about three months' investigation, the mixed commission will make a report embodying recommendations as to what can be done for Russia, unless the conference breaks down in the meantime.

Coal Mine In Residence District of Pittsburg
Operates Despite Strike, Output 25 Tons a Day

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The administration is not likely to take any drastic action looking to the ending of the nation-wide coal strike while Secretary of Commerce Hoover and other officials continue their efforts to keep prices at reasonable levels, it was learned officially at the White House today.

The cabinet meeting today was given over to a lengthy discussion of the coal situation and it was agreed that the administration's policy of moral suasion would be continued with a view to effecting a peaceful settlement in the coal industry.

By WALTER C. MERRITT
For International News Service.

PITTSBURG — Overlooking Pittsburg's great $100,000,000 civic center in the Oakland district is a full-fledged coal mine perched high upon a hill. Nearly 100 years ago this mine was opened, and today it is going full tilt, though a nationwide miners' strike is in progress.

Pittsburg is a queer town in many respects. Here they mix smoke and grime with almost everything. They also mix the sublime with the lowbrow stuff, too.

They may build a great university or a great technical school or a great Carnegie Institute down in the Oakland district, but high up on Herron Hill this old mine just keeps pegging away day after day, with its eight miners. It produces about twenty-five tons of first-class bituminous coal every twenty-four hours.

Possibly this is the only city in America which boasts of a full-fledged mine right in the heart of the city. Sure enough, it is an eyesore to those strong on the artistic, but frequently in this man's town they place the dollar ahead of other things, and so far sentiment has failed to get rid of the mine up on the hill.

Strangers driving through the East End and Oakland districts remark about the structure standing on one of the most conspicuous spots in the city, but while the stranger gazes with awe the little mine car is rattling down the incline from the tangle above. And every time one of those little cars descends the side of the hill it rattles a few more dollars into the owners' pockets.

When the curious stranger points out this strange sight the old-timers quickly point to the beauties of Schenley Park or University Hill or the famous and beautiful Squirrel Hill. But the visitor insists on an explanation—more details.

Away back in 1836 that section of the town contained some rich commercial mines, and they were worked for a number of years. Soft coal sold for 10 cents a bushel then. Many of the people who lived up on the hill got their own coal for twenty or more years and mined it out at three cents a bushel. Then one day this particular mine was abandoned, and it lay dormant for eighty-six years.

A year or two ago some coal men believed there still were great deposits left under the hill. So the old mine was put in action again. It was found to be in excellent condition after its long idleness. All day long the rumble of coal being dumped in the cars is to be heard, as well as the clatter, clatter of the cars going down hill. A block away street cars and autos whiz by.

Woman Being Held

SHANGHAI, June 13.—According to reports received here today by the vernacular press, the Norwegian Lutheran mission at Luchan in the province of Honan, was looted and completely destroyed by bandits.

Six foreigners were taken prisoners, the report stated, but all have been released except Miss Staurach, who is being held for ransom.

Many buildings were burned by the looting bandits, the advices stated, and it was reported more than 100 Chinese were shot or burned to death.

BROADWAY INN TO OPEN TONIGHT;
BIG PROGRAM

Spring Chicken, Musical Numbers, Other Features
Will Be Presented

The Broadway Inn opens tonight at the corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue with a baked spring chicken, as the piece de resistance, although Wanda Serrano and troupe of Hawaiian instrumentalists, singers and dancers will enliven the evening.

There is no need of dwelling on the cabaret features—Glendale people know what they are—but as to the meals which will be served: Ah, that is something to talk about.

Andrew Virag, who was the chef in Hotel Jefferson at St. Louis for years when cooking was an art, it is he who will prepare the chicken and attend to the other details of tonight's feast.

William Herzog is the proprietor of the Broadway Inn and he has been making every effort to have the place most attractively decorated for the opening. Oh, yes, favors will be given and that should please the fickle public of an opening night.

Comes from Florida

The cafe man comes to Southern California from Miami, Fla., where he had charge of a large restaurant, and way back in the good old days he was the chief steward at the Waldorf-Astoria. So it is service that you will see at the Broadway Inn.

Evening and Sunday dinners at $1 a plate will be popularized here by Mr. Herzog, although a la carte service and other special prices will prevail, such as merchants' lunch for 50 cents and club breakfast for 40 cents. Mr. Herzog briefly outlined to The Glendale Evening News.

Remember, the opening is tonight, beginning at 5 o'clock. Your satisfaction is guaranteed by the proprietor.

LEAGUE LEADERS OPPOSED TO RULE

Anti-Barnstorming Measure Causing Much Protest
by Big Chiefs

By DAVIS J. WALSH

Sporting Editor International News.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Having nothing better to occupy them at this time, those gentlemen who head the various and sundry major league clubs seem about to declare another inter-league war over the anti-barnstorming rule so favorably voted upon by the Heydler circuit.

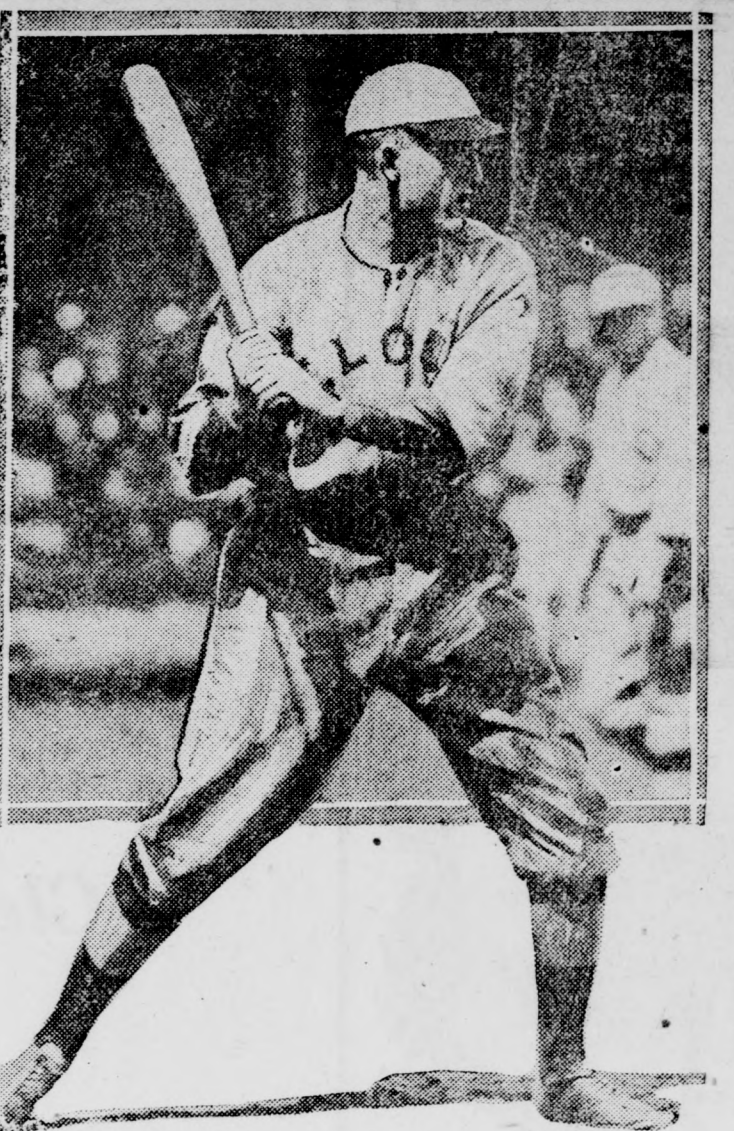

American league magnates, notably Ruppert, Huston and Ban Johnson, are visibly annoyed by the National league's attitude toward barnstorming since it fails to serve their best interests. The memory of Babe Ruth's suspension, so recent as to be quite permanent, has lined up American league owners against the rule which forbids players of championship teams to play exhibition games after the season is over and they are all for doing something drastic about it.

When Johnson gets around to the matter, it is expected that a vote will be taken as a means of sounding American league opinion on the rule and the same forwarded to Judge Landis for favorable consideration. Failing to gain this, they promise to do everything within reason to make the National league lot a merry one.

It is believed that the Yanks signed Ruth and Meusel this season with the understanding that, win or lose, the American league race, they would be permitted to barnstorm next fall until cold weather drove them indoors and it looks as though they were a bit headstrong in their promises to the players in question.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—Roger Hornsby, star slugger of the St. Louis Cardinals, busted his fourteenth home run of the season off Pitcher Lee Meadows of the Phillies in the third inning of Monday's game. Hornsby by that hit tied with Ken Williams, of the St. Louis Browns, in the number of home runs for the season. Last season Hornsby cracked out twenty-one home runs.

Roger Hornsby Hits Another Homer and His Total Now Stands at 14 for Season

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—Roger Hornsby, star slugger of the St. Louis Cardinals, busted his fourteenth home run of the season off Pitcher Lee Meadows of the Phillies in the third inning of Monday's game. Hornsby by that hit tied with Ken Williams, of the St. Louis Browns, in the number of home runs for the season. Last season Hornsby cracked out twenty-one home runs.

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—Aroused by the news that Roger Hornsby, his rival for home run honors, had just hit his fourteenth home run, Ken Williams connected with one of Joe Bush's offerings in Monday afternoon's game with the Yanks and poled out his fifteenth homer.

NEW YORK, June 13.—This is the story of romance and tragedy blended, for one fleeting moment, in the careers of two turf idols—one of the present, the other of the past.

While the crowd at Jamaica was hailing the great Morvich, the 1922 Kentucky Derby winner, as he raced a half mile against time, Old Rosebud, winner of the same classic in 1914, was lying dead at Aqueduct, a few miles away, the victim of a friendly bullet.

Thus did the past and present cross paths for a single instant. For Morvich, the pampered darling of the track, the occasion meant cheers and acclaim. For Old Rosebud, the forgotten, a merciful bullet.

Old Rosebud, broken and useless, with the days of his triumphs dimmed by time, shot as an act of mercy, even while his present-day successor was flaunting his supremacy before thousands who had once hailed the derelict as supreme. Life itself holds no sterner lesson of the fleeting character of fame.

The career of Old Rosebud, unlike that of Morvich, scaled the heights and plumbed the depths in a rapid succession of ups and downs. He was one of the leading two-year-olds in 1913, won the Kentucky Derby the following year in 2:03 2-5, the fastest time ever made in the classic, and two or three weeks later broke down during the running of the Withers.

For the next two years he was lost to racing; then, in 1917 and 1918, he came back to gain even greater renown in racing against the best handicap horses in training.

Followed another breakdown, and it was virtually the last. Old Rosebud was patched up again and started in two races at Jamaica against the cheapest kind of selling platers. But it was asking too much even in that kind of company. His heart was as big as ever, but his legs couldn't answer.

He broke down in training for the third time several weeks ago, and this time his owner, Frank D. Weir, who had stuck to the horse through sentiment, realized that there was nothing for it but that Old Rosebud must pass on to whatever might await him beyond life.

The bullet was merciful—and friendly. And a few miles away a turf crowd cheered the new king.

There is a quiet agitation going on for the re-entry of Stanford university into the rowing game. Followers of this sport on the Pacific coast certainly hope that fruit will be borne. There are few enough crews on the coast to spare any of them and the withdrawal of Stanford was a distinct loss. Reed college in the northwest is a new entrant, but it remains to be seen how much of a figure they will cut. Indications are that the students of that institution are serious in their intentions. The great hurdle that has to be overcome in rowing are the ways and means of financing it. There is no such thing as gate receipts, and usually the crew is maintained through the surplus taken in through some other sport. Finances were the consideration in the case of Stanford. With its big new football stadium, it is felt that a greater revenue may be had in the future.

PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Both California and Stanford universities have probably competed for the last time in the I. C. A. A. A. annual track and field championships.

There are several important factors which officials at both colleges now have under consideration which may mean the severance of membership in the I. C. A. A. A. The dates set for the meet are at variance with the college work of the Pacific slope and special arrangements on studies and examinations usually have to be made to allow the teams to go east to compete. This is undoubtedly the main reason why the two colleges will have to sever its connections with the far eastern meet. It has been a matter of great inconvenience in this respect and in a measure has tended to upset class work in several directions.

Other factors which are being taken into consideration are the matter of great expense for the trip clear across the continent; and still another important matter is that by competing in the eastern meet both California and Stanford have automatically cut themselves off from competition in the Pacific coast conference meet owing to clash of dates. The feeling is gaining ground on the coast that these two largest of the coast colleges should compete in their own conference meet, which, from a geographical aspect, is the meet which demands their loyalty and adherence. This idea is held not alone by outsiders but by the officials and undergraduates of both colleges.

Early in the year Graduate Manager Nichols of California stated that owing to having won the title in 1921 his team would not compete in the 1922 I. C. four A championships, but what they would do after that was a matter for the future to decide.

The N. C. A. A. championships in Chicago are staged after the close of the coast college semesters and this fact coupled with the fact that competition in this mid-western meet would enable the colleges to compete in the Pacific Coast Conference, and the other item which means a big cut in the matter of expense will probably be the deciding features in the colleges withdrawing from the I. C. A. A. A. and taking membership in the N. C. A. A.

The universities of the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho forming with California the Pacific Coast Conference have not been satisfied with the continued absence of California and Stanford from the annual coast conference meet. The dates in the past two years have precluded the competition of California colleges in the coast conference and at the same time compete in the eastern conference meet. It was a question of choice between the two and owing to their success-past years in the eastern meet, and the fact that the one was local and the other national competition the latter was selected. Now, however, the way seems open for California and Stanford to compete in its own meet and also in the meet at Chicago where the team can get national competition. In other words, California and Stanford, under this arrangement, can have both competitions.

At True's trial he was proved sane at the time he killed the girl—Gertrude Yates—in a Kensington apartment. After he had been found guilty and sentenced to death a medical board report was forwarded to the home office saying that True was insane at the present time. Under the law of England an insane person cannot be executed. The home office consequently reprieved True, explaining the law.

The reprieve of True, who is the son of a titled woman, was decided in the House of Commons today by Home Secretary Edward Shortt, who had granted the reprieve.

"The home office had no knowledge of True's parentage," said Mr. Shortt. "There was no pressure upon the home office. The reprieve was granted to True in accordance with the practice of centuries that it is illegal to hang an insane person."

SHRINE PARADE IS COLORFUL, HAPPY AND MUSICAL

Seventy-Six Bands Provide Marching Tunes; Clocks Are Given Vacation

By ELLIS H. MARTIN
By International News Service.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Three hundred thousand people today watched the first colorful pageant parade formally open the golden jubilee of Shrinism and turn Market street into a flowing river of color.

The parade was for the purpose of escorting Imperial Potentate Ernest Cutts and the other imperial officers to the convention hall where the forty-eighth annual session of the imperial council opened its sessions.

Eight thousand nobles, wearing the gay colored fanciful uniforms of the Shrine patrols from all over the country marched.

Seventy-six bands including the famous "millionaire" aggregations from Chicago and Oklahoma City provided the lively march music.

Airplanes whirled overhead and dropped six huge bombs, explosion of which was the signal for the start of the pageant which required more than two hours to pass a given point.

City Is Captured
The parade was only an incident of the Shrine "doings." The visitors have captured the city and they are applying their own patented device of encompassing a thousand and one nights' entertainment within the compass of a single week. To do it the clocks have been given a vacation. Tireless and in seemingly endless legions, the visiting Shriners have occupied the golden city of the west, turning it into a bedlam of noises, a great open air temple of music and a flaming mass of exotic Oriental colors.

The carnival spirit held sway downtown all night and several temples were still whooping it up early today when with the dawn the last two temples completed their pilgrimage over the hot sands and beheld the mecca of their golden jubilee.

Adverse weather conditions did not detract from the enthusiasm of the paraders nor lessen the crowd of spectators. Umbrellas were in demand as a protection against a slight drizzle which fell during the morning.

TELLS WHAT OATH SOUGHT OF IRISH

Secretary Churchill Gives Statement on Issue to House of Commons

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service.
LONDON, June 13.—Great Britain does not require an oath of allegiance from the members of the provisional parliament in the Irish Free State, but it does ask for such an oath from members of the Irish Free State parliament after the adoption of the proposed Irish constitution, Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill announced in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Secretary Churchill said, however, that Great Britain does not require adherence to the Anglo-Irish peace treaty from the members of the provisional government, now in existence in Dublin. This statement explained the oath issue which has been misunderstood by the public and has been the subject of much speculation in the press.

Michael Collins arrived from Dublin during the morning after a conference with Secretary Churchill, the famous Irish leader appeared in a most optimistic frame of mind.

"I am not worried and I am satisfied that everything will turn out well," said Collins. "That is all I can say now."

NO SMOKES ON DUTY IS ORDER FOR POLICEMEN

ATLANTA, Ga.—City bosses of Atlanta have decreed that smoking shall cease while Atlanta policemen are on duty and that the moon shall shine not at all for the law enforcers.

Policemen shall be discharged summarily under the new instructions from city council if they are caught smoking while on duty or if they even so much as take a nip of liquor at any time during the day or night, whether on or off duty. Only the smell on his breath will be needed to make the discharge instantaneous.

Kathryn M. Cocke To Start Class Here

Kathryn Monteville Cocke of Los Angeles announces the opening of a class in pianoforte in Glendale July 5, place and time to be given later.

Miss Cocke, who is a pupil of the late William Sherwood, is endorsed by Rudolph Gans, Harold Bauer and other prominent musicians. She has been teaching with wonderful success for the past eighteen years in Los Angeles, and still has a flourishing school in that city. Parties wishing to communicate with Miss Cocke may phone 51926, Los Angeles.

Ohio Reform Mayor, Now for Governor, to Run for President, So He Declares

George L. Oles & Dr. Amy Kankonen

By WILLIAM J. HUSKE
By International News Service.
CLEVELAND—Can George L. Oles, reform mayor of Youngstown, who last fall defeated the candidates of both Democratic and Republican parties in a three-cornered race for mayor, during which he mixed political philosophy and epigrams with his grocery advertising, repeat on a statewide scale in November?

This question is one that is confronting the "old guard" of both political machines, and while for publication these leaders of political thought discount the effect of Oles' announcement that he will be an independent candidate for Governor, privately they admit that they fear the effect of his entry upon party lines. Oles himself is supremely confident.

"Two brief years as governor of the best state the lord ever made," he declares, "and Warren G. Harding can turn the keys of the White House over to me. Sure, I'm going to run for president, and I'll be on the independent ticket, too. Roosevelt ran that way, and lost. I'll show the politicians some new kinks about this independent game."

"My insignia will be a streak of lightning," he continued, turning to a discussion of his independent candidacy this fall. "One political party has chosen a rooster as its political emblem; the other asks votes under the eagle. I'm strong for this animal stuff, but I'm going to break away from natural history."

"I'm Going Through"
"I'm going through this state so fast in my campaign for governor that the politicians will be unable to catch me with anything less speedy than lightning. I don't know or care who my opponent will be this fall. They all look alike to me. My advice to them is not to spend the savings in the family sack in the primaries. As far as they are concerned it will be a total loss."

Mayor Oles, whose slogan in Youngstown last fall, "Let George Do It," won him thousands of votes, has amplified it somewhat for state campaign purposes, and Mrs. "George" is going to do part of it.

"Certainly, Mrs. Oles will be with me every step of the way in my campaign," he declared. "I'm going to make a speaker of her. While I make my special appeal to the women voters, my wife will talk to the men."

"Most of my speeches will be made from the back platform of a Pullman. However, my visits to the rural sections will be by airplane. I will have no itinerary there, but will just fly around, and when I see a group of men making hay, cutting wheat, or plowing corn I will swoop down and give them my message and be on my way."

Here are some of the promises made by Mayor Oles to the voters in announcing his candidacy:

Take the electric chair out of the penitentiary and hang all murderers outside the penitentiary where everyone can see them and where their fate will serve as a deterrent to the crooks who have not left the country.

Make prohibition a fact in Ohio.

Give personal attention to state penal and correctional institutions.

Clean up the taxation muddle. Build more highways.

Drive 100,000 "crooks and profiteers" from the state of Ohio.

Financial relief for cities.

advertisement, most of which was devoted to exploiting the wares offered for sale in his grocery store.

Not Taken Seriously
The politicians didn't take him seriously, but the voters did and he won. Whether he can repeat on a statewide scale is a matter that can only be answered when the votes are counted in November.

Already active steps are being taken in various parts of the state to advance his candidacy. At the same time that he announced his intention to seek the governorship, he issued a statewide appeal for a campaign fund of $100,000, limiting each contribution to a sum not greater than $5. He says that already the response to this appeal has been surprising.

Ohio has long had the habit of independent voting. In 1899 Mayor "Golden Rule" Jones, of Toledo, running as an independent, polled more than 100,000 votes and carried Toledo and Cleveland.

Oles is endeavoring to get Dr. Amy Kankonen, girl mayor of Fairport, to run for lieutenant-governor. He has received appeals, he asserts, from all parts of the state urging him to place the name of "Fairport's fighting girl mayor" on the ticket.

Miss Kankonen, however, has not yet decided whether or not she will become a candidate. From her home she has announced that she will "think it over."

FOREIGN POLICY BEING OUTLINED

Secretary Hughes Works on Permanent Program for Americans Abroad

By HARRY L. ROGERS
For International News Service.
WASHINGTON, June 13.—Secretary of State Hughes is now engaged in working out a permanent foreign policy for the United States which he hopes will continue regardless of changes of administration, it was learned at the state department today.

The secretary believes America's influence in international affairs has suffered in the past from lack of continuity of policy, resulting from the fact that the secretary of state chosen by one party often saw fit to reverse the practices and decisions of his predecessors.

Protecting Interests
Nevertheless, he is convinced there are certain fundamental principles of American policy which remain sound whether the president of the United States chooses to be a Republican or Democrat.

Protection of American interests abroad and equal opportunity throughout the world for American capital are two of the principal features of the Hughes foreign policy. To these might be added a third, namely, refusal to have any official dealings with governments which decline to recognize the usual laws of property and of nations.

Hughes knows that when American capitalists put their money into foreign enterprises they want to feel the American state department is going to back them up if necessary.

ELYRIA YOUTH HOLDS RECORD AS DAREDEVIL

ELYRIA, Ohio.—Clarence Myers, eighteen, has had a more adventurous experience than any other youth of his age in these parts.

When a mere lad he was sent to the state reformatory. Two years ago he shot a boy companion with a rifle. Three months ago his motorcycle collided with an auto, as a result of which the autoist took a vacation in a hospital.

Two months ago Clarence was scorched when a government mail plane, lost in a fog, was wrecked while landing and was damaged by fire when the gasoline tank exploded.

Now Myers faces a charge of reckless driving. His motorcycle crashed into a bicycle. During the collision John Schoenfeld, rider of the bicycle, sustained a fractured skull and was taken to Memorial hospital in a dying condition. Police decided to hold the adventurous young Mr. Myers.

Our total annual consumption of tin is something like 93,000 tons. Unfortunately, we are obliged to import nearly all of it; for the United States has hardly any tin deposits worth mentioning.

SULPHUR CLEARS A PIMPLY SKIN

Apply Sulphur as Told When Your Skin Breaks Out

Any breaking out of the skin on face, neck, arms or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur. The pimples seem to dry right up and go away, declares a noted skin specialist. Nothing has ever been found to take the place of sulphur as a pimple remover. It is harmless and inexpensive. Just ask any druggist for a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

GLENDAL E MAKES RAPID PROGRESS MOVE TO PREVENT MONEY FROM LEAVING CITY

—Glendale only a few short years ago was nothing but a vast expanse of valley, dotted here and there with ranch houses. At that time, if even the suggestion of a townsite had been made, it would have been ridiculed and considered highly improbable. The ranchers were prosperous and contented—they could hitch the team to the buck-board and drive into the city once a week to do the marketing. This was in keeping with conditions, there was no other place to shop. As time went on, changes began to take place, new demands were being made, development progressed until today a prosperous modern city has been built. Its citizens are proud of the fact that they live in the "fastest growing city in America." They are responsible for its growth.

MONEY GOES TO ADJACENT CITIES

—There is spent every month by the people of Glendale $1,500,000 for food, clothing, furniture, musical instruments, automobiles, building material, etc., of which, through lack of desire to co-operate, about 33 1-3 per cent or $500,000 is going to merchants elsewhere in spite of the fact that the local merchants pay taxes in Glendale, while the others have no interest whatever, other than to take away just as much business as is possible. Stop this flow of money to the city—patronize and co-operate with the local merchant. Buy it locally and keep the money at home.

—The merchants whose advertisements appear on this page are loyal, representative concerns, deserving the co-operation, support and patronage of every resident of Glendale. It is recommended and urged that more shopping be done at home.

'Man to Man' Features Real Stampede Staged Near Universal City

"Man to Man" is the promising title of the Universal-Jewel attraction coming to the Glendale theatre today, tomorrow and Thursday.

It is a starring vehicle for Harry Carey, filmed with elaborate attention to the thrill qualities a western story should provide.

A cattle stampede of five thousand head ought to furnish a kick for the jaded spectator. The Agoura ranch, a cattle grazing kingdom of great acreage near Universal City, California, was the scene of the stampede. The fence-less areas around Benson, Arizona, furnished a location for other thrilling scenes.

It is a most interesting western film with Lillian Rich in the feminine lead role and, with the other film numbers, makes an ideal program.

EARLY PLUM PICKING MAKES QUALITY LOWER

WASHINGTON.—The demand for California plums could be expanded considerably if a uniform high quality product were put upon the market, according to the department of agriculture.

Because of a desire to reach the early market and secure the high prices paid for the first few cars of plums shipped, the department stated, there has been a tendency among shippers in recent years to pick the fruit in a greener condition with each succeeding season.
An investigation of the soundness of this policy just completed by the department disclosed that the tendency toward early picking results in placing an inferior grade of fruit on the market.

aged 68 years. He entered the ministry in the twenty-seventh year of his age and planted the

PAVE HIGHWAYS WITH STEEL, EH?

Heavy Traffic Noticed by Visitor Causes Him to Offer Suggestion

"You will have to have steel paved highways here soon," said
J. H. Burson of Johnstown, Pa., who was visiting in Southern Glendale yesterday afternoon, and watched travel on San Fernando Road.

"Just look at that traffic pounding away the pavement.
Trucks that weigh tons, buses that are loaded to capacity, pleasure cars that speed along at a great gait. No road ever built will stand the gaff.

"So you California folks might as well get ready to build a four-speed, steel-laid highway. Never mind the expense, but get it built, especially in a district like this.
Bumps, danger, lives, destroy property and cannot be eliminated from any asphalt or concrete pav-ment once they start," said Mr.
Burson. "Better use steel."

And then his hearers began to suspect that the Pennsylvania owns some steel stock and was trying to start something to aid his "back home" industry.

JOHN BARRYMORE
FILM AT T. D. & L.

'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde' Is Starring Vehicle for One Day Performance

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" the famous story by Robert Louis
Stevenson with the great John Barrymore as the star, is the attraction at the T. D. & L. theatre for one day—today only.

This famous tale by the beloved Stevenson is presented on the silver screen not only as one of the great tributes to the genius of John Barrymore but as one of the greatest cinema productions of all time. Many who have seen "Dr.
Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will want to see it again. Those who have not seen it will acclaim it what has been previously said of it wonderful, entertaining. There is but one Robert Louis Stevenson, likewise but one John Barrymore, and with these two geniuses together with the capabilities of all the motion picture industry, has given to the silent drama this super-production: "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Tomorrow, Wednesday, the T. D. & L. will again charge its picture attraction when DeMille's "Don't Change Your Husband" will be presented.

enthusiastic over the promises of the Glendale baseball team.
He expects to root for it week-

Where's Glendale? You Say In the Path of Progress Climate of Which We Boast Pity for Poor Old Espee

By Gil A. Cowan

HERE the devil is Glendale? asked the man of Irish temperament as he glanced through a booster edition of the San Fernando valley of today.

Although there were four or five valuable contributions in the way of advertising to this otherwise creditable edition of a weekly newspaper, they were the only notices of Glendale while every whistling post on the Southern Pacific was mentioned.

San Fernando gave out a map at the Chamber of Commerce caravan luncheon in their city which did not show Glendale and now this additional oversight makes it plainly evident that the boosters there are either zealously jealous, or grossly ignorant.

"The fastest growing city in America—Glendale"—is located in the San Fernando valley. It can't help it, but it can criticize those denizens of the back country, including the editors, for soliciting business here and then failing to give Glendale due credit.

Glendale is the gateway to the San Fernando valley and the gateway section of Glendale is one of the most traversed parts of the entire state. San Fernando, Glendale-Brand and Los Feliz boulevards have more traffic than any other gateway into the metropolis. And all of these converge in the southern part of this city, so there is no question as to the location, import and future of Glendale.

San Fernando boosters will please take notice.

It is good to have a representative group of newspaper men sit down and consider the merits of your publication—The Glendale Evening News—and pass judgment thereon.

When they say that it contains more real local news than any other publication in this vicinity, one cannot help but think there is something to it.

And when you hear an employee of a Los Angeles concern which reviews all of the daily publications in the southland declare that The Glendale Evening News maintains the best "home town" paper of them all, it not only is satisfying, but drives one to greater efforts to be better than the best.

The Glendale Evening News endeavors to cover its field better than anything yet attempted. It preaches nothing but Glendale and vicinity, although the rest of the world is amply cared for in leased wire reports.

Only a day or two ago a man from Kansas came into the office and stated he was sending a copy of this paper to the publisher of the sheet back home in order that he might determine what constituted news news.

"Never have seen the building record for the year in that Kansas paper," he said. "All they seem to care about back there is band concerts, baseball and funerals."

Of course, Glendale offers a field quite different from most. It is progressive to the nth degree. It is growing so rapidly that no one can keep up with the procession. As the business man, Pa. publisher puts it, there is only one danger, and that is Californians are apt to be run over in the fast pace set by its industrial leaders.

Just look back into the files of the newspaper of yesterday and see how true that statement becomes as time swings his scythe. It would be too personal to mention those who have come and gone in the last decade, for many of them are yet alive.

Quite a number of these retiring souls move to Tujunga and other places. Now the "speed bug" has hit the community mentioned and incorporation is on the program. Growing pains are being evinced and no doubt the person who will not progress will either be found sitting on the mountain top or be forced out into the ocean.

The quaint characters of John McGroarty's essays are fast passing and a few years hence they will be studied by school children in much the same manner as such is the progress of the man made progress, which, of course, has its compensations.

All of which reminds me of a story told by a Hawaiian editor attending the Rotary convention. "Los Angeles is a most wonderful city," he said. "Growing by leaps and bounds. Some day it will annex the Hawaiian Islands."

Great applause was given him for this little boost, to which he immediately added:

"And then you will have the climate which southern California now boasts!"

That got a big laugh, for it was well deserved. California climate is good, but where is it 100 per cent? Not here, not there, not anywhere. Nevertheless, it is as good around Glendale as anyone might desire.

That is saying a lot!

A wonderful row is developing over the supreme court's action in divorcing the Central Pacific railroad from the Southern Pacific's system.

The Union Pacific claims the former lines while the Espee is endeavoring to mend fences and get its connecting loop back into the steel lap of the southwest.

Columns of publicity on each side are received by The Glendale Evening News and, inasmuch as the Union Pacific shows an inclination to do things for Glendale, it has the best of the argument.

Under the leadership of Carl R. Gray, the Union Pacific is forging ahead to such a point that the Southern Pacific may well look to its knitting and give to Glendale that which it has long been deserving. Adequate station facilities, ad-

The body will be shipped back to Wichita, for burial by Pulliam, Kiefer & Eyerick.

FRANK M. JENNINGS

Frank M. Jennings, aged 21, died at Pastime Park hospital, U. S. P. H. S. Tucson, Ariz., June 10, 1922, after an extended illness contracted while in war service with the United States naval forces. He was born August 19, 1900, and enlisted in the navy when but a junior in high school at Kansas City, Mo., April 13, 1917, soon after the declaration of war on Germany.

While serving on the U. S. S. San Diego in April, 1918, he was stricken with influenza and transferred to the hospital at Fort Lyons, Colo. He was discharged from the service on July 16, 1919, and traveled from one hospital to another in search of health. He was a patient at Thornycroft here from October to March of last year.

His mother, Mrs. Grace S. Jennings, was brought to Glendale by her son and he insisted that she remain with the family here while he went to Tucson in the last vain effort to thwart death. Friday night telegrams sent Mrs. Jennings hurrying to her son's bedside, only to reach there six hours after he had died.

His father, T. P. Jennings, resides at Belmont, Mo., while two sisters, Mrs. C. Brown, and Martha Jennings and a brother, aged 12, Truett P. Jennings, also survive.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon, June 14, at 2 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers and interment will be in Forest Lawn Memorial park. The Disabled Veterans of Foreign Wars are in charge of arrangements.

MRS. CAROLINE M. ADAMS

Mrs. Caroline M. Adams, widow of L. W. Adams, passed quietly and peacefully to rest at 11:35 o'clock last night, June 12, 1922, at her home, 155 South Pacific avenue, this city, after an illness of only three days following a paralytic stroke which she suffered last Saturday morning. Prior to that time she had been in her usual health. At her death and during the entire time of her illness her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Adams of 153 South Pacific avenue, were at her side.

In addition to her son, who was her only child, and his family, Mrs. Adams was survived by a sister, Mrs. Paulina Wilbur of Barton, Vermont, also by two brothers, Byron E. Wells, Muskegon, Michigan, and Eugene C. Wells, Waterville, Vermont. Among her several nephews and nieces the only ones residing in California are Miss E. A. Bingham, 221 West Wilson, this city, and Mrs. R. G. Payne and daughter Frances of Bakersfield.

The deceased had been a well-known resident of Glendale since January, 1909, when she and her husband and son removed here from Morrisville, Vermont, where Mr. Adams was for many years associated with C. J. Shaw & Co. in the manufacture of boat oars and canoe paddles at different points in Vermont and New Hampshire.

Mrs. Adams is known by many as the "mother" of the Pacific Avenue Methodist Episcopal church of this city and was for several years corresponding secretary of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society and president of the Ladies' Aid Society of that organization. She was also a member of the Women's Relief Corps, N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., of Glendale. She was born to Susan and Cyrus Wells on June 21, 1848, at St. Armand, Province of Quebec, to which point her parents had temporarily removed from the state of Vermont. After residing there for a period of two years the family returned to the Green Mountain state. Mrs. Adams was married in September, 1870, to Lyman W. Adams, who died at the Glendale home December 6, 1913.

The sterling Christian character so strongly exhibited in Mrs. Adams endeared her to a host of friends, who will deeply mourn her death. Funeral services will be held at the Pacific Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Pacific and Harvard, at 2 p. m. Thursday. The pastor, Rev. Harley G. Preston, and Dr. W. W. Cookman, former pastor, will officiate. Interment is to be in the family lot at Forest Lawn cemetery where services will be conducted by the W. R. C. of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R. The Jewel City Undertaking company has charge of arrangements.

Additional train service and a little local recognition might gain for the Espee the sympathy they have requested of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

China Now Forming Coalition Cabinet

WASHINGTON June 13—"Hsu Shih-Chang's retirement as president of China removes the first of several obstacles to the effective restoration of parliament as an agency of national unification," said a manifesto transmitted to Secretary of State Hughes today by Ma Soo, representative of the South Glendale republic.

Mr. Ma said that the manifesto was being presented on instructions from Wu Ting-fang, former Chinese ambassador to the United States and later foreign minister in the South China government. Advice from Peking on Monday said that Wu would be a member of the new coalition cabinet being formed by President Li Yuan-Hung at Peking. The manifesto adds:

"It seems that the treaty powers are not wholly free from responsibility for the deplorable situation in China. Notwithstanding warnings and protests, they recognized and continued to recognize Hsu Shih-Chang as president of China in circumstances which converted their recognition of him into what might be considered a concerted act of intervention in the internal affairs of this country (China)."

Wallace to Probe Source of Insects

WASHINGTON—How the much dreaded insect, the European corn-borer, makes its way from Canada to the southern shore of Lake Erie is to be investigated by the department of agriculture, Secretary Wallace has announced. A small investigating force of entomologists will be established in Sandusky, Ohio, for this purpose, Wallace said.

The spread of the corn-borer is so uniform over a narrow strip extending practically the whole length of the lake that the department reports believe that the moth of the insect fly across. The object of the investigation is to find out if this is a fact.

If the Lighthouse Service grants the necessary permission, observers of the department will be placed at certain lighthouses along the American shore on the lake. It is believed that if moths fly from Canada to the United States they are likely to be attracted to the big lights at night. Just how much influence these exert on the moths remains to be seen.

It has already been demonstrated that moths, under certain conditions, can resume flight after falling upon the water. It has been suggested that the islands at the western end of Lake Erie offer resting places for the moths in their journey to the American shore and the investigation will watch to see if this is true.

The European corn-borer, from its occurrence on the southern shore of Lake Erie, presents a serious menace to the American corn belt. Both state and federal forces are lending every effort to hold this pest in check if possible. With the knowledge gained from the proposed investigation it is hoped by federal officials that the work of control may be materially benefited.

Airplane Companies Teach Boys to Fly

LONDON.—British passenger aeroplane companies are taking every care that a steady supply of first class pilots always be available to guide their super liner-planes. They now are taking boys as apprentices at the age of fifteen and training them for future flights.

The course of training is between four and five years. At the end of that time, if everything proves satisfactory, they will be given jobs as pilots or ground engineers, or some responsible position in the organization of an air line.

"Our first requirement," says Sir Samuel Instone, founder of the big air service running between London and Paris, "is that the boys must have a high standard in education to begin with, because it will be necessary for them afterwards to pass examinations in engine to navigation, aerodynamics, or some responsible position in the organization of an air line."

"The first two years of their indentures will be spent at the repair and overhaul shops at the Croydon aerodrome, and in due course they will then occupy the spare pilot's seat and be taught the actual handling of an air liner flying on actual air routes."

"At the end of the training he should be easily qualified for the air ministry's pilot license and should be making about $2,500 a year immediately."

The purchase price aggregated $600,000. The company owns the property contains 90,000,000 tons of coal. A railroad is now being built up Glade Creek to serve the mines to be opened on the property.

HARDING TAKES BLAME

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—President Harding took the blame for the "accepted full responsibility" for the losses of naval reserve oil fields that have been consumed with private concerns, including the Tea Pot Dome, Wyo., deal with the Sinclair interests. The president said he fully approved the policies adopted by the interior and navy departments with respect to these leases.

DENIES PLOT OF DESTRUCTION ON MARE ISLAND

Senator Newberry Answers Senator King; Economy Cause for Move

By J. BART CAMPBELL
For International News Service.
WASHINGTON, June 13.—Senator Newberry, Republican, Michigan, struck back at Senator King, Democrat of Utah, today with an emphatic denial that there is a conspiracy to wreck and destroy the Mare Island (California) navy yard, and substitute a naval base at Alameda, in San Francisco bay.

It was solely in the interest of economy that the allotment for diking and dredging at Mare Island was cut from $750,000 to $250,000 in the navy appropriations bill, Senator Newberry explained.

"The Alameda project did not enter into the matter at all," he said. "We decided to drop that project for the same reason we agreed to economize at Mare Island—to save as much money as possible. As long as we are going to get along with a smaller navy, there can be no necessity for spending money on a new base, or, for that matter, on a navy yard where it is not urgently needed."

No Justification

Senator Poinsett, Republican, Washington, acting chairman of the Senate naval affairs committee, declared there was no justification for Senator King's charge that an attempt was being made to rush the navy bill through the Senate "under whip and spur."

The hope was expressed that the measure would be passed by the week-end despite the notice served by King that there would be indefinite discussion of the Mare Island measure unless it were restored to $750,000. King was expected to be supported by Senators Johnson and Shortridge of California, but members of the Senate appropriations committee expressed the opinion that the reduction would stand.

Supporters of the soldier bonus bill were hopeful that a way would be found to take it up immediately after the naval measure was disposed of.

Three Bandits Slain In Holdup of Train

NOGALES, Ariz., June 13.—Mexican bandits who attempted to hold up and rob a Southern Pacific of Mexico railroad train near Rosario station, sixty miles south of Mazatlan, Sinaloa, yesterday, were driven off, according to reports reaching here today. Three of the bandits were killed and two wounded when General Rodriguez and members of his staff, who were aboard the train, opened fire upon them, the report said.

According to word received here, the bandits, twenty-five of them, had obtained word that forty boxes containing silver bullion had been placed aboard the train by an American mining company at Rosario. The bullion shipment is said to have been valued at $35,000.

Trainmen told General Rodriguez, who was in a rear coach, that the bandits were attempting to loot the express car. Rodriguez and his staff opened fire. Two members of the staff were slightly wounded.

Two hundred soldiers under command of General Flores, chief of military operations in northern Mexico, are pursuing the robbers.

Los Angeles Man Asserts Americans Economize on Soap

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 13.—Although Americans have rather prided themselves that soap is something of a national institution, the fact is, according to Bert Butterworth of Los Angeles, that Americans economize on soap. The total per capita per annum expenditure for soap in the United States is 20 cents.

Butterworth made his revelation in an address before the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, in convention here.

As for cosmetics, Butterworth declared the charge that the "flapper" and the "vamp" spend all their change for beautifiers is slanderous.

The per capita expenditure in the United States, he said, for lip sticks, rouge, face cream, brow pencils, mascara, paint, powder and other cosmetic concoctions, is just 50 cents per annum.

HAWAIIANS FEAR WRATH OF PELE

Huge Eruption of Volcano Is Predicted by Expert On Island

HILO, Island of Hawaii, T. H., June 13.—A titanic eruption of Kilaua volcano, thirty-one miles from this city, is predicted for some time in the very near future by Professor Thomas Jaggar, Jr., volcanologist, in charge of Kilaua volcano observatory, who bases his prediction on the remarkable recent activity of Kilaua and the breaking out of live lava at points between the volcano and the sea, fifteen miles distant.

According to Professor Jaggar, the manifestations of activity now are the same as those which preceded the great eruption of 1840, during which lava burst forth from the mountain side far below the main crater of Kilaua and flowed into the sea, wiping out several settlements en route. Earthquakes of varying intensity are being felt every few minutes throughout the vicinity of the volcano.

Hawaiian natives are fleeing in dread from the wrath of Pele, goddess of the volcano, who, they believe, has been aroused to anger because of attempts to make scientific borings into the crater floor at Kilaua.

Mr. Whitney, whose brother, J. L. Whitney, has been a resident of Glendale for some time, came to California from Colorado early this year, and settled in Los Angeles. In his work with the local firm he became so impressed with the beauty of Glendale and its homes that he decided to make the change to this city.

Lenine's Condition Hopeless, Claims Reports in London

LONDON, June 13.—The physical condition of Nicolai Lenine, founder of the soviet government and the real ruler of Russia, is hopeless, according to information secured this afternoon from authoritative sources.

Lenine is said to be suffering from influx of blood into the brain, which caused a loss of speech. A stroke of paralysis followed.

The real cause of Lenine's illness is reported to have been a poisonous infection, although it is not clear whether poison was administered in an attempt at assassination.

Harding Opens Fight for Subsidy Bill

WASHINGTON, June 13.—President Harding today opened his fight in congress for early enactment of the administration's ship subsidy bill.

Chairman Campbell of the house rules committee made public a letter from the president declaring congress would be convened in extraordinary session to consider the merchant marine legislation if congress failed to act on the measure during the present session.

In his letter to Chairman Campbell, President Harding said:

"I understand that in a very short time the merchant marine bill is to be favorably reported to the house. I am writing to express the hope that your committee on rules will report whatever provision is necessary for its early and final consideration.

"I cannot convey to you how very earnestly I feel the necessity of passing this act.

"So much is involved and such a difficult discouraging situation will follow if congress fails to sanction the merchant bill that I shall feel myself obligated to call congress in extraordinary session to especially consider it if it went over through any neglect or delay beyond the present term.

"I shall be more than glad to co-operate in any way that I can in impressing the house with the urgent necessity of the favorable consideration of the bill.

"I am writing an expression of my earnestness to you at this time because I understand that it is within the province of the rules committee to report a provision under which there may be secured an early, and, I hope, favorable consideration."
